

INTERNAL AND INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT – SEMESTER II/2020

SEPTEMBER

On 9 September 2020, the President of the Constitutional Court of Romania, Professor Valer Dorneanu, PhD, held a video-conference discussion with the President of the Supreme Court of Canada, Mr Richard Wagner, within the bilateral judicial dialogue.

It marks the opening of bilateral relations between the Constitutional Court of Romania and the Supreme Court of Canada and started with a mutual presentation of the powers, with brief incursions into the relevant recent case-law, providing an excellent opportunity to review the state of achievement of common objectives at bilateral and multilateral level, as expression of a good collaboration, including in terms of the perspectives offered by the Supreme Court of Canada's Presidency of the Association of Francophone Constitutional Courts.

In this register, as the current global health restrictions prevent the organization of the A.C.C.F. Bureau meeting in Bucharest in October this year, President Valer Dorneanu reiterated the availability of the Constitutional Court of Romania to host it in 2021 as a priority objective of its external agenda.

Both parties expressed their hope for a positive evolution of this health crisis, the President of the Constitutional Court of Romania addressing an invitation to the President of the Supreme Court of Canada to continue and preserve an active bilateral dialogue in Bucharest next year.

On Friday, 18 September 2020, at the opening of the second seminar dedicated to the constitutional review, held as part of the online seminars programme between the Constitutional Court of Romania and the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova, the President of the Constitutional Court of Romania, Professor Valer Dorneanu, PhD, had a brief meeting with Mrs Domnica Manole, President of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova.

The online seminar was held by Mr Benke Károly, Assistant-Magistrate-in-chief of the Constitutional Court of Romania, who continued his presentation on the analysis of the conditions of admissibility of the exceptions of unconstitutionality.

The President stressed the importance of collaboration between the two courts of constitutional jurisdiction and he particularly appreciated the organization of the online seminars programme addressed to the Assistant-Magistrates of the Constitutional Court of Romania and to the Judicial Assistants of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova.

Professor Valer Dorneanu, PhD, assured the Moldovan party of the entire friendship and appreciation of the Romanian court, expressing the wish to organize a working meeting in Bucharest at a time to be determined in the lights of the evolution in the global health situation.

On Friday 25 September and 2 October 2020, the last two seminars dedicated to constitutional review were held as part of the online seminar programme between the Romanian Constitutional Court and the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova.

At the seminar of 25 September 2020, Dr Teodor Papuc, Deputy Secretary of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova, presented the paper Can also the test of less restrictive interference be included in horizontal protection of fundamental rights?, while Mr Dumitru Avornic, judicial assistant, described the effects of the decisions of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova.

At the seminar of 2 October 2020, Dr Benke Károly, assistant-magistrate-in-chief of the Constitutional Court of Romania, presented the effects of the decisions of the Constitutional Court of Romania.

In closing the programme of webinars, both sides appreciated the usefulness and necessity of the constitutional dialogue between the assistant magistrates of the Constitutional Court of Romania and the judicial assistants of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Moldova. Both sides therefore agreed to continue these webinars, with presentations that would focus on disseminating solutions of principle resulting from the jurisprudence of the two constitutional courts.
